npm install error - unable to get local issuer certificate

338 Vishnupriya July 25, 2024 Common Errors & Troubleshooting 31727

Resolving error: 'unable to get local issuer certificate' during node installation

Overview: This article describes how to resolve the 'unable to get local issuer certificate' error during Node installation by temporarily disabling strict SSL.

Error: unable to get local issuer certificate

This usually occurs when the outbound connection on port 443 has been blocked and can be resolved by running the command below :

```
:~# npm config set strict-ssl false
```

Related Articles:

Install node using npm and n module.

How to list Apache modules.

Online URL: https://www.ezeelogin.com/kb/article/npm-install-error-unable-to-get-local-issuer-certificate-338.html